International Conference

Frattesina fifty years later.

The Po Delta between Europe and the Mediterranean in the centuries around 1000 BC

13th-15th April 2018

Conference venue

Museo dei Grandi Fiumi, Rovigo (Italy)

2nd CIRCULAR

Dear Colleagues,

please note that subscription to the conference is free of charge, but registration is still required and must be sent to the organization by e-mail (cpssae2018@gmail.com) no later than 25th March 2018 (see the below registration procedures and the related form).

Below are some useful logistical and organizational information of practical utility. For further questions, please feel free to contact us.

Programme: it is available from:

<https://frattesina50.jimdo.com/programma-programme/>

Venue: the conference will be held at the Museo dei Grandi Fiumi di Rovigo - Sala Flumina, in Piazza S. Bartolomeo 18. The Museum can be reached from the Railway Station by walk in about 30 minutes or by bus line n. 9 in approximately 15 minutes (bus stop Piazzetta Appiotti).

For all those who want to arrive by their own means, the nearest car park with limited parking spaces is located in Piazzetta Appiotti (about 3 minutes walk from the Museum) and in the streets next to the conference venue.

Book of abstracts: the digital volume of the summaries of the invited reports and posters will be soon available for download from the conference website <https://frattesina50.jimdo.com/>

Coffee and lunch breaks: coffee breaks are offered by the organization. For lunches there is a payment service to be booked (see registration procedure and relative form). However, there are several dining facilities nearby the Museum.

Accommodation: there are several hotels and B&Bs near the Museum. Please note that the organization of the Conference has agreed a special price with the Hotel Villa Regina Margherita <http://www.hotelvillareginamargherita.info>.

Otherwise you can also consult the Official Tourism Portal of Rovigo Province and find the most suitable structure for your needs.
